

Comments for Session: S02

Question: Additional Comments

Additional Comments:

GREAT TO HEAR FROM VERY EXPERIENCED IN-HOUSE COUNSEL ABOUT REAL-WORLD EXAMPLES OF EFFECTIVE CASE EVALUATION. THANKS.

Additional Comments:

Room was on the "cold temperature" side, needed to discuss "pre-claim" time period to really stop surprises. — what does owner want?
① What does owner want?
② Due diligence - Peer Review - when? how much?

Additional Comments:

Up front prep to AVOID SURPRISES.

Additional Comments:

A little dry. Lots of opportunities for war stories, which would have livened it up. Maybe fewer panelists  $\Rightarrow$  more opportunity for each.

Additional Comments:

good question "describe the one that got away -

Comments for Session: S02

Additional Comments

Additional Comments:

Great panel. Great topic - interesting insights and discussion of related considerations - bias, culture. Real issues not always easily accepted / confronted

Additional Comments:

- Late start because of registration problems.
- After 30 years, I find it difficult to believe I have an optimism bias; if anything, the opposite. There are certainly political factors in organizations which create an optimism bias!

Additional Comments:

Conference room doors make very distracting noise when opening & closing.

Additional Comments:

Very knowledgeable and experienced panel.

Additional Comments:

<sup>Clayton</sup>
you had 3 claims made - Moh, Eng & Eng
one occurrence (insur) - points are very diff.
and it was obvious, but not addressed

Comments for Session: S02

Question: What subjects would you like to see addressed in future Construction SuperConferences?

What subjects would you like to see addressed in future Construction SuperConferences?

Overall, a good topic for future presentations.
Excellent panel members.

What subjects would you like to see addressed in future Construction SuperConferences?

Outline some items/situations that will be part of future problems. Examples of what typically are used, the problems.