PC1	Fantastic program - lots of time for interaction with other attendees
PC1	The room was very cold	More leadership, more risk assessment
PC1	Backward facing chairs are very uncomfortable. Great speaker, more real world examples would be good
PC1	Technical issue, music in next room impacted flow a bit but presenter did a great job of acknowledging and minimizing with humor
PC1	A great session. Great combination of lecture and group discussion
PC1	More information about women as leaders would have been preferred
PC1	Very good leadership content, would like more women vs men insight
PC1	I really enjoyed the subject matter, presenters expertise and demeanor, and the discussion opportunities
PC1	There were many slides we could not read too much very small font. It was on the wall so could have been expanded. Most of us could not read a word so lost all the content

PC1	Great speaker and topic	Improving performance
PC1	Fantastic speaker!
PC1	The room was very cold
PC1	Too cold!
PC1	Too cold in room!	Great session, would like some further women specific examples and topics
PC1	Great program and informative
PC1	Great personality and attitude. Visuals hard to read. Some unavoidable repetition in presentation	Value, non hourly billing
PC1	Courtney makes learning fun, her passion. She is an inspirational leader and trainer
PC1	Slides difficult to read
PC1	Screen was dark to see all small print. Examples of individuals who have become leaders through program
PC1	Photographer was overly distracting. Colors on screen faded into the wall making it difficult to read
PC1	Great presentation. It really got me thinking about the topics presented and I appreciated the discussions we had.	More leadership panels and, or workshops such as this one
